ARTICLE III–ORGANIZATION

Section 1. SkillsUSA is an organization of state associations, each operating in accordance with a charter granted by SkillsUSA, Inc.

Section 2. The administration and authority in the SkillsUSA College/Postsecondary Division will be vested in the Board of Directors of SkillsUSA, Inc.

Section 3. The national executive director is the administrator of the national headquarters. The Executive Director shall be appointed by and responsible to the Board of Directors for conducting the work of the national program.

ARTICLE IV–MEMBERSHIP

Section 1. Membership of the SkillsUSA College/Postsecondary Division shall consist of the total eligible members of the chartered state association, territorial or U.S. possession, and members shall hold the same membership status as in their respective state and local organizations.

Section 2. A state association must have at least one College/Postsecondary Division, and all members of the state association must be members of the national organization to qualify for a charter.

Section 3. Each local chapter and state association shall be open for membership to all students regardless of race, sex, religion, creed, national origin or disabilities, as defined by the Americans with Disabilities Act.

Section 4. SkillsUSA will recognize members only through a state association with the exception of direct membership. Classes of membership which will be recognized are:

Active Membership—Students enrolled in a coherent sequence of courses or career major that prepares the student for further education and/or employment related to trade, industrial, technology and health occupations and is earning credit toward a diploma/certificate or its equivalent.

Direct Membership—Students enrolled in College/Postsecondary program courses offered in trade, industrial, technology and health occupations education meeting the requirements of the State Plan for Career and Technical Education and residing in states without a state association to serve them. This classification will only be recognized if application for membership is made as part of an organized local SkillsUSA chapter sponsored by the appropriate Board of Education. Direct members may not serve as national voting delegates or hold national office.

Alumni Membership—Former active members who are no longer enrolled in career and technical education. Although alumni members pay dues and may participate at the national level through the Youth Development Foundation of SkillsUSA, Inc., they are not eligible to serve as national voting delegates, hold national office or otherwise represent the state active association membership in National SkillsUSA. Charters may be issued for local and state alumni associations. The Board of Directors approves appointments to the National Alumni Coordinating Committee, which oversees contributions to the National SkillsUSA Alumni Fund, a fund which supports a variety of worthwhile projects for active SkillsUSA members.

Professional Membership—Persons associated with or participating in the professional development of SkillsUSA, who pay dues as established by SkillsUSA, will be recognized as professional members.

Honorary Life Membership—Individuals who have made significant contributions to the development of SkillsUSA and vocational trade, industrial, technology and health occupations education whose membership has been approved by the National Executive Council upon the recommendations of a state association. Such membership shall not require payment of national dues.

Section 5. A membership year shall be from September 1 through August 31.

ARTICLE V—NATIONAL OFFICERS

Section 1. The National Officers shall be a slate of five elected at large by the House of Delegates at each annual national meeting and shall serve from September 1 through August 31.

Section 2. During the time period between national officer elections and training, vacancies in any national office shall be filled by appointment from the president of the Board of Directors. If a national officer-elect fails to attend national officer training, the officer will forfeit the privileges of being a national officer for that year. Replacements for national offices will continue to follow these set guidelines, but only before national officer training. Vacancies occurring after national officer training will not be filled.

ARTICLE VI—QUALIFICATIONS FOR NATIONAL OFFICE

Section 1. Candidates for national office shall have:

- Active membership status
- Endorsement of their state association

The Board of Directors is defining the present active membership status and endorsement of the state association to read as follows: “Students enrolled in a coherent sequence of courses or career major that prepares the student for further education and/or employment related to trade, industrial, technology and health occupations and is earning credit toward a diploma/certificate or its equivalent. If a student is elected to serve, and is unable to fulfill the obligation, the state may forfeit the right for officer candidates in their division the following year. The Board of Directors will review the situation, listen to the concerned parties, and make the final recommendation/decision.”

Section 2. All candidates for National Office must file their candidacy for office with the national executive director not later than June 1 prior to the date of the annual national meeting.

Section 3 No state is eligible to provide the national president for two consecutive years and each state will be allowed only two candidates for national office per year.

Section 4 Candidates for national office shall be required to submit the official national officer candidate forms.

Section 5. A member who holds an elected position prior to election of a national office may be ex-officio in his or her state or local organization and must vacate the elected position during his or her tenure in national office.

Section 6.

- A. The national staff will review applications to verify minimum qualifications outlined in Sections 1 through 4, and notify states of any deficiencies.
- B. All applications that meet minimum qualifications contained in Sections 1 through 4 shall be submitted to the Nominations Committee.
- C. The Nominations Committee will administer an objective written exam on the Leadership Handbook and The Career Skills Education Program (CSEP). All candidates who have met the minimum qualifications in Sections 1-4, and make 75 percent or higher on the written test, shall be qualified to run for a national office. The test shall be originated by the national staff member responsible for training.
- D. The Nominations Committee shall further interview all qualified candidates and review and post test results.
- E. The Nominations Committee shall prepare a final ballot showing all qualified candidates.
- F. A two-minute speech will be given by each candidate. The final election will be held during the House of Delegates meeting.
- G. Before final ballots are cast, the candidates shall respond to a problematic oral question before the House of Delegates. The question shall be the same for all candidates and shall be originated by the national staff member responsible for training.
- H. Final ballots are cast by the delegates. All voting for national officers shall be by secret ballot.

- I. The Nominations Committee shall be comprised of the following individuals to be named by the national staff member responsible for training:
1. Past or current National Executive Council members;
 2. One member of the Board of Directors of SkillsUSA, Inc.;
 3. One corporate member; and
 4. Five regional representatives from the State SkillsUSA Directors Committee.

ARTICLE VII–NATIONAL EXECUTIVE COUNCIL

Section 1. The College/Postsecondary Division National Executive Council shall consist of the national president, vice president, secretary, treasurer and parliamentarian. The national executive director shall serve in an advisory capacity only, with no voting privileges.

It shall be the duty and function of the National Executive Council to:

- Conduct business pertaining to the students they serve
- Advise the Board of Directors concerning the execution of the decisions of the House of Delegates
- Preside over the national meetings and conferences
- Call special meetings and conferences, subject to the approval of the Board of Directors
- Propose and review proposed amendments to the College/Postsecondary Division Constitution and Bylaws and recommend legislation to the House of Delegates
- Make recommendations as to the creation and design of the colors, motto, creed, jewelry, emblem, wearing apparel and other items it may wish to adopt as official property of the organization with approval of the Board of Directors

Section 2. An advisor from each of the states that has a national officer shall serve as consultant to the National Executive Council.

Section 3. The National College/Postsecondary Executive Council shall be part of the Joint Executive Council in cooperation with the High School Division officers. The Joint Executive Council shall elect a chair, vice chair and secretary. The position of chair is rotated each year. In even years, the chair is chosen from the High School Division officers. In odd years, the chair is chosen from the College/Postsecondary Division officers. The purpose of the Joint Executive Council is to provide coordination between the divisions.

ARTICLE VIII–HOUSE OF DELEGATES

Section 1. The College/Postsecondary Division House of Delegates shall consist of two voting delegates from each chartered association, plus an additional delegate for each 500 College/Postsecondary Division members or major fraction thereof. Each delegate shall have one vote and must be present to vote

It shall be the duties and functions of the House of Delegates to:

- Enact bylaws, rules and regulations necessary for carrying out the affairs and activities of the organization
- Elect national officers of the organization
- Act upon items of business as requested by the National Executive Council and the Board of Directors

Section 2. No student delegates, contestants or participants at a national meeting shall be recognized or seated unless they are accompanied by one or more adult advisors from their respective state, territory or U.S. possession.

ARTICLE IX–MEETINGS

Section 1. An annual meeting of SkillsUSA will be held at such time and place as the National Executive Council and Board of Directors may decide.

Section 2. The National Executive Council, with the approval of the Board of Directors, shall be empowered to call special meetings.

Section 3. Parliamentary procedures at all meetings will be governed by Robert's Rules of Order, Newly Revised.

ARTICLE X–VOTING

Section 1. Members shall exercise their franchise at national meetings or conferences through duly elected representatives or delegates of the chartered state associations.

Section 2. All official delegates and alternates must be certified by the respective SkillsUSA director of their state, territory or U.S. possession to the national executive director not later than June 1 prior to the national meeting.

Section 3. Voting on national officers and honorary positions shall be done by secret ballot.

Section 4. Any person elected to a national office must receive a majority number of the votes recorded.

Section 5. Any candidate eliminated by Section 4 shall not be eligible for appointment to that office.

ARTICLE XI–FINANCES

Section 1. State associations shall be responsible for annual national dues according to the number of individual members claimed in each membership classification.

Section 2. All organization monies from the state associations shall be deposited with the corporate treasurer of the Board of Directors.

Section 3. Annual dues shall be established and determined by the national board of directors, in consultation with the state association directors, with the proviso that increases shall be up to $0.50 increments for the student dues and up to $1 for the professional dues and documented by actual “proof of need.”

Section 4. Upon final dissolution or liquidation of SkillsUSA, and after the discharge of all outstanding obligations and liabilities, the remaining assets shall be used by the Board of Directors for the benefit of students of vocational trade, industrial, technology and health occupations education, or be transferred to some recognized educational foundation.

Section 5. The fiscal year of SkillsUSA shall be September 1 through August 31.

ARTICLE XII–AMENDMENTS

Section 1. The Constitution and Bylaws may be amended as follows:

- A proposed amendment must be presented in writing to the national executive director 90 days prior to a national meeting
- The amendments shall be reviewed by the National Executive Council and the Board of Directors
- Amendments must be submitted to each state association as soon as possible, but not less than 60 days before the annual meeting of the National Executive Council at the time of the national meeting

- Amendments must be presented for vote at an official business meeting of the House of Delegates at the national meeting. Amendments to the Constitution shall be adopted upon two-thirds affirmative vote of the House of Delegates. Amendments to the Bylaws shall be adopted by a majority of the House of Delegates.

ARTICLE XIII–BYLAWS AND OPERATING POLICIES

Section 1. Bylaws shall be adopted by a majority vote of the House of Delegates.

Section 2. Operating Policies shall be adopted as determined by the National Executive Council and Board of Directors.

Section 3. A student elected to a National Office must remain in active membership status until the completion of the term of office.

College/Postsecondary Division Bylaws

ARTICLE I–COMMITTEES

Section 1. It shall be the responsibility of the national president to appoint national committees and delegate their duties.

Section 2. The national president shall appoint each year, at the national meeting, the following committees:

- Administration
- Training and Program Development
- SkillsUSA Championships and Industrial Relations
- Publications and Public Information
- Conference Management and Support Services
- Nominations

The national President shall appoint other committees as necessary to conduct the work of the national organization.

Section 3. All business brought before the House of Delegates must first be reviewed by the appropriate committee before presentation to the House of Delegates.
